TO ALL DELEGATES AND MEMBERS:

Dear PBA Member,

I am writing to update you on the latest issues involving the broken and unaccountable New York State Parole Board.

As we previously announced, the Parole Board has secretly stopped accepting the letters in opposition to the parole of cop-killers submitted via the "Keep Cop-Killers In Jail" tool on the PBA website.

The PBA will continue to press the Parole Board to honor its agreement with the PBA and restore the direct link between the PBA website and the Parole Board. In the meantime, however, we have reconfigured the "Keep Cop-Killers in Jail" tool so that the opposition letters come directly to the PBA.

The reconfigured tool is now live on the PBA website, and we are asking every single PBA member and their friends and family to use this new process to resubmit their opposition for every cop-killer on the list.

The PBA will print out every single one of those letters and deliver them to the Parole Board—by hand, in person—to send a strong message that our voices will not be silenced or ignored.

As always, we will continue to update you on development in this issue.

Fraternally,

Patrick J. Lynch
